

Please withdraw the petition that is attempting to weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy law.

Businesses should not have the right to invade my home with their unsolicited sales calls.

They do enough advertising in newspapers, television and radio; if I want their services, I know where to find them.

When I am in my home, I want to be left alone.

Thank you,

Walter J. D'Ambrosio